

Department of Justice

United States Attorney Richard S. Hartunian

Northern District of New York

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Tuesday, March 20, 2012

WWW.USDOJ.GOV/USAO/NYN

CONTACT: JOHN G. DUNCAN

PHONE: (315) 448-0672

United States Attorney Richard S. Hartunian announced today that Vincent A. Parham, 29, of Syracuse, New York, was sentenced on Friday, March 16, 2012 in U.S. District Court in Utica to serve a 24 month term of imprisonment. He had previously pled guilty to assaulting U.S. Marshals in Syracuse on January 27, 2011 as they were arresting him on a warrant for a violation of his supervised release term. Parham pled guilty to jumping off a landing onto three Special Deputy U.S. Marshal's (Syracuse Police Detectives) and a Deputy U.S. Marshal. None of the officers received serious injuries. The court also sentenced the defendant to an additional six month term of imprisonment to be served consecutively for his violation of his term of supervised release.

The case was investigated by the U.S. Marshal's Service, Syracuse Office. The case was prosecuted by Assistant U.S. Attorney Richard R. Southwick

###